Poppin’ Hoppin Fresh House Basketball

By Jarrett Minton & Ryan Walton

CVMS House Basketball has started. At this point, most teams are confident about their ability to make it to the finals except for House 3. According to Colton Shumway, they will not make it because they have lost both of their games. Their current record is 0 and 2. Unfortunately, the games were not close. They lost both games by at least 20 points he said.

Darin Loesher is a little more optimistic. “I think that House 3 will go all the way this year. We do need to do a lot of work with our team though,” he said.

Brady Lowry, member of House 4’s basketball team thinks differently. He thinks his team is the definitely the best. “We’re going to beat House 1 this year,” he added. According to Cooper Robertson, House 4 has a winning record. “We have won 2 games and lost one so far this season. We will probably make it to the championship game,” he said.

“House 1 is the best team because we have a lot of talented players,” claims Cameron Williams.

Volleyball is Our Second Middle Name

By Ryan Walton

Canyon View Middle School’s Seventh Grade Volleyball team recently ended their season. This was the first year playing for many of the players.

Although the team ended the season with no wins, they feel confident about what they learned. The skills that they developed this year will help them to do better next year.

The record did not show how well they played. They played very close games this season against Kanab and Pine View. Kanab had a very narrow 25 to 23 victory.

Members of the Canyon View girls’ volleyball team include: Malia Vasi, Shayla Johnson, Ashlyn Wheelright, Jordyn Nielson, Autumn Maxwell, Echo Lile, Camry Greenwich, Camry Higgins, and Maddie Wilcox.

Player Malia Vasi summed up her idea of how well she thinks they will do next year in one word: “Excellent!” she said. Ashlyn Wheelright and Shayla Johnson are not quite as confident. But both agreed, “We’ll do better next year, for sure!”

With the volleyball season behind them, they are now ready to focus and practice skills before next year. For many, this just means staying active or getting involved in other sports. Some members from the volleyball team are going to play on Border League teams in the summer. Ashlyn Wheelright plans on improving her skills by going to SUU for a snazzy volleyball camp in the summer .
