

CV Students Participate in Tuachan's Annual October Production of Thriller

By: Aleesha Adams

Every year Tuacahn puts on a production called "Thriller." In the show, there are chainsaw men, uChuckies, and zombies that dance to Thriller.

This year, there were a lot of girls from Canyon View who auditioned to be Chuckies or zombies. Trying out is very difficult. There are about 60 dancers who try out, so the competition is tough.

Those who make the "Zombie" cuts, will go to an initial 6 hour rehearsal. Dancers then are required to go to 2 hour rehearsals until the show starts. Those who made it say that being in that show is an amazing experience. "When you dance on that stage there are 2,000 people in the audience. Doing the show improves your acting," said one zombie.

Zombies and Chuckies are considered actors and they are not allowed to talk or walk normal when they are out in the plaza scaring people. They are required to be the part.

Participants learn what it feels like to dance and act professionally. A local dance teacher encouraged her students to try out. "Anytime you can get your face in front of Darrel Yeager, go for it because he is a big deal," she said.

The show is an amazing experience. Dancers work with the actual Odyssey dancers for a week. A local Cedar City dance studio, OnStage, did the preshow almost every night. There were many Canyon View students who had the opportunity to showcase their talents in front of large audiences.
